

Oral Communication

Learning Outcome 1: Ability to compose a logical and well-supported oral presentation, as defined by a clear introduction, sufficient factual support, coherent connection among ideas, and a clear conclusion.

Learning Outcome	4	3	2	1	0
	Thorough	Adequate	Limited	Weak	Unscorable
Ability to compose a logical and well-supported oral presentation, as defined by a clear introduction, sufficient factual support, coherent connection among ideas, and a clear conclusion.	Introduces topic in clear and engaging manner  Fully supports topic with specific examples, statistics and/or testimony  Clearly presents ideas in logical sequence and connects them coherently  Signals end of presentation and has thoughtful conclusion	Introduction is clear  Generally supports topic with good examples, statistics and/or testimony  Presents ideas in a mostly logical sequence and adequately links them  Signals end of presentation	Introduction is unfocused  Provides some support with limited use of examples, statistics or testimony  Ideas are loosely organized, not necessarily presented in logical sequence or may have some abrupt jumps among ideas  Conclusion is somewhat incomplete or unfocused	No introduction  Provides poor support with little or no use of examples, statistics or testimony or Provides incorrect facts or weak examples  Presents ideas in unorganized and incohesive manner  Abrupt ending or no clear conclusion	Team presentation and unclear who did what  Evidence does not measure the learning outcome

Learning Outcome 2: Ability to deliver an oral presentation effectively.

Learning Outcome	4	3	2	1	0
	Thorough	Adequate	Limited	Weak	Unscorable
Ability to deliver an oral presentation effectively, as characterized by appropriate eye contact, body language, voice, and pacing.	Clearly articulates words  Speaks at excellent pace, pitch & volume  Maintains excellent eye contact with minimal or no reading of slides/notes  Body language (e.g. gestures, movement, & facial expressions) is engaging, with almost no distracting mannerisms	Articulates words well  Speaks at acceptable pace, pitch & volume  Maintains good eye contact with little reading of slides/notes  Body language is generally appropriate, with very few distracting mannerisms	Articulates most words well and/or uses some vocal fillers *g0 0owo ö." owy ö."orkngö." of qw'npqy ö+  May have some issues or inconsistencies with pace, pitch and/or volume  Limited eye contact and/or frequent reading of slides/notes  Body language is somewhat effective and/or speaker exhibits some distracting mannerisms	Does not articulate words well and/or uses many vocal fillers (e.g. owo ö."owj ö." orkngö. 'oqw' mpqy ö+  Demonstrates significant issues with pace, pitch and/or volume (e.g. speaks inaudibly)  Almost no eye contact and/or complete reading of slides/notes  Body language is ineffective and/or speaker exhibits many distracting mannerisms	Evidence does not measure learning outcome